How to use cam locks

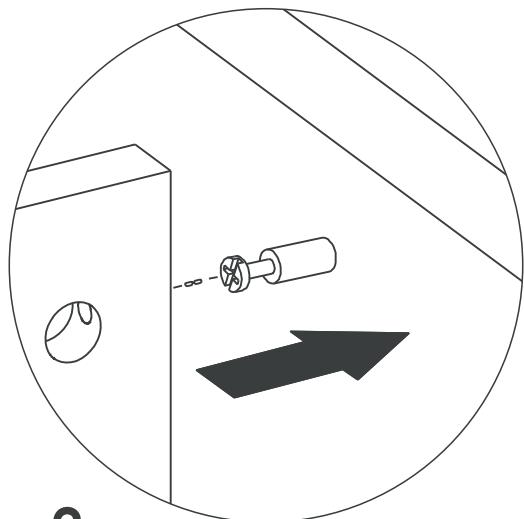

Did you know?

Cam locks are used to join two panels together, usually the edge of one to the flat side of another.

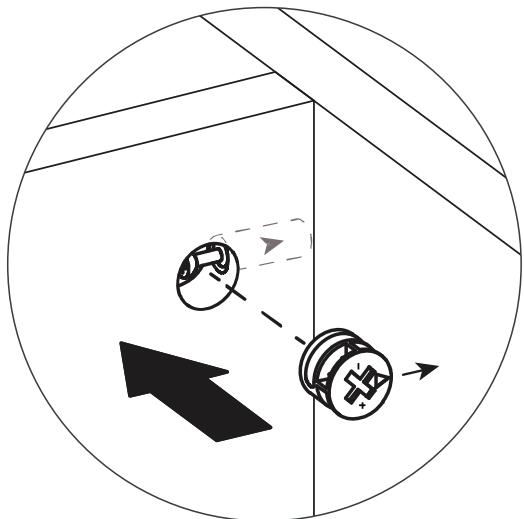

1

Screw the cam bolt into panel

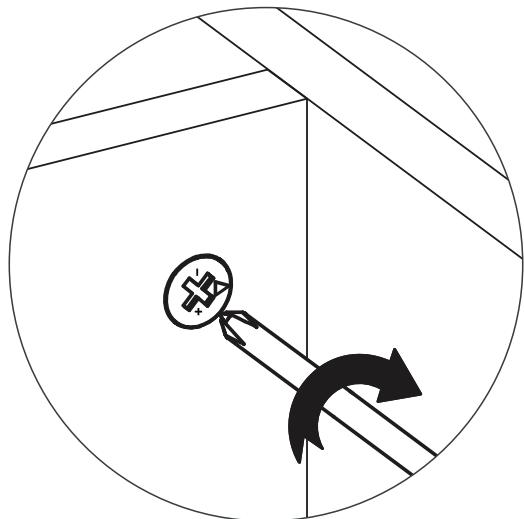

2

Slide the joint panel onto the cam bolt

3

Align the cam lock with its side opening (or arrow) pointing to cam bolt

4

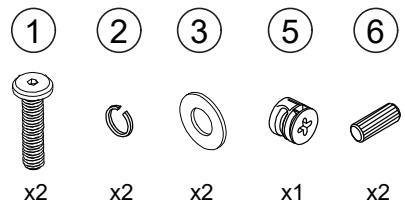

Turn the cam lock clockwise gently until it will not turn any more

Still having issues?

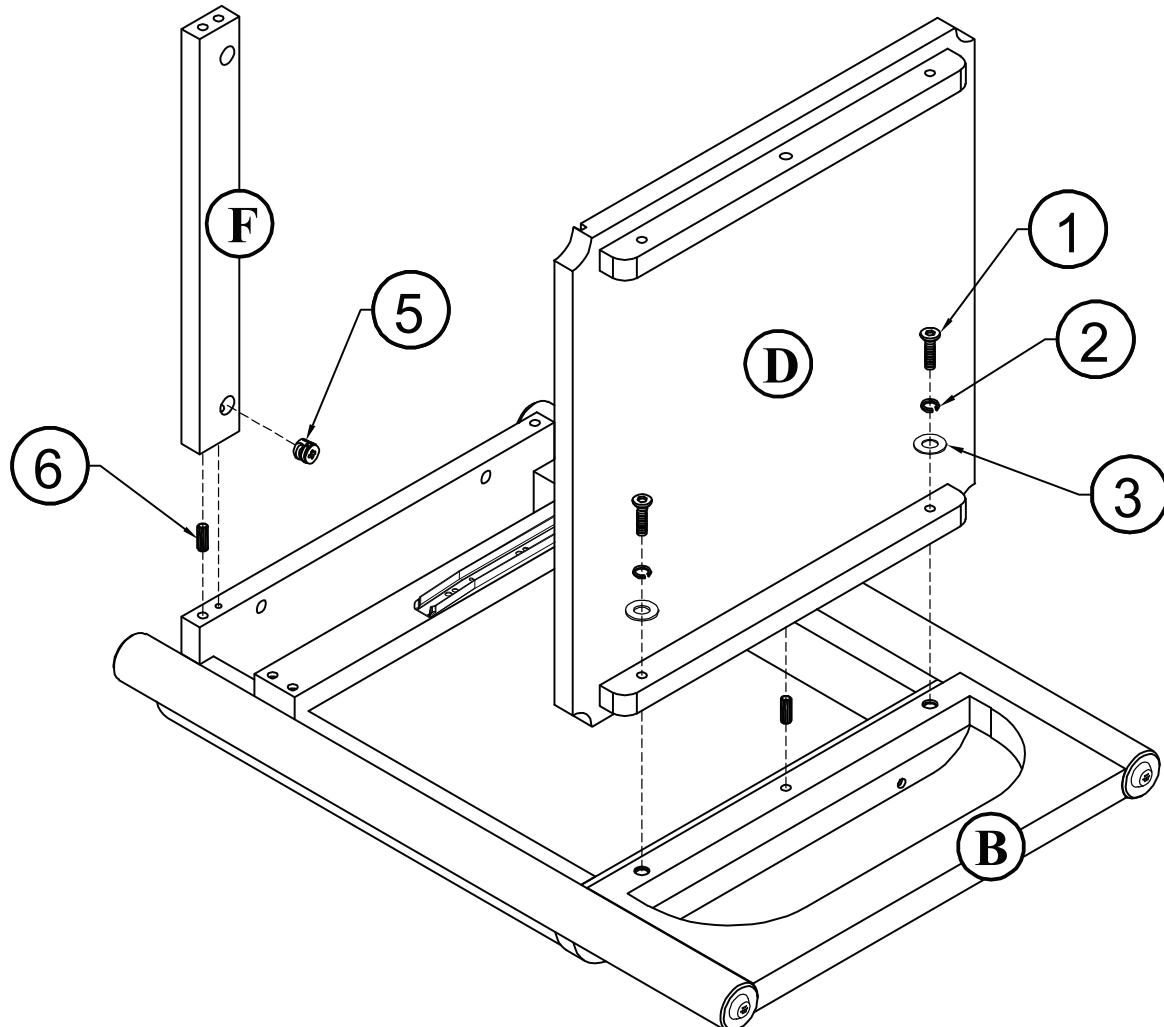

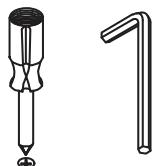

If the cam lock spins or won't catch, remove and reinstall it, making sure everything is aligned. If it still doesn't work, remove the cam lock and loosen the cam bolt slightly to adjust alignment.

Step 2

Connect the Support Bar (F) to the Right Side Frame (B) using Cam Locks (5) and Wooden Dowels (6).

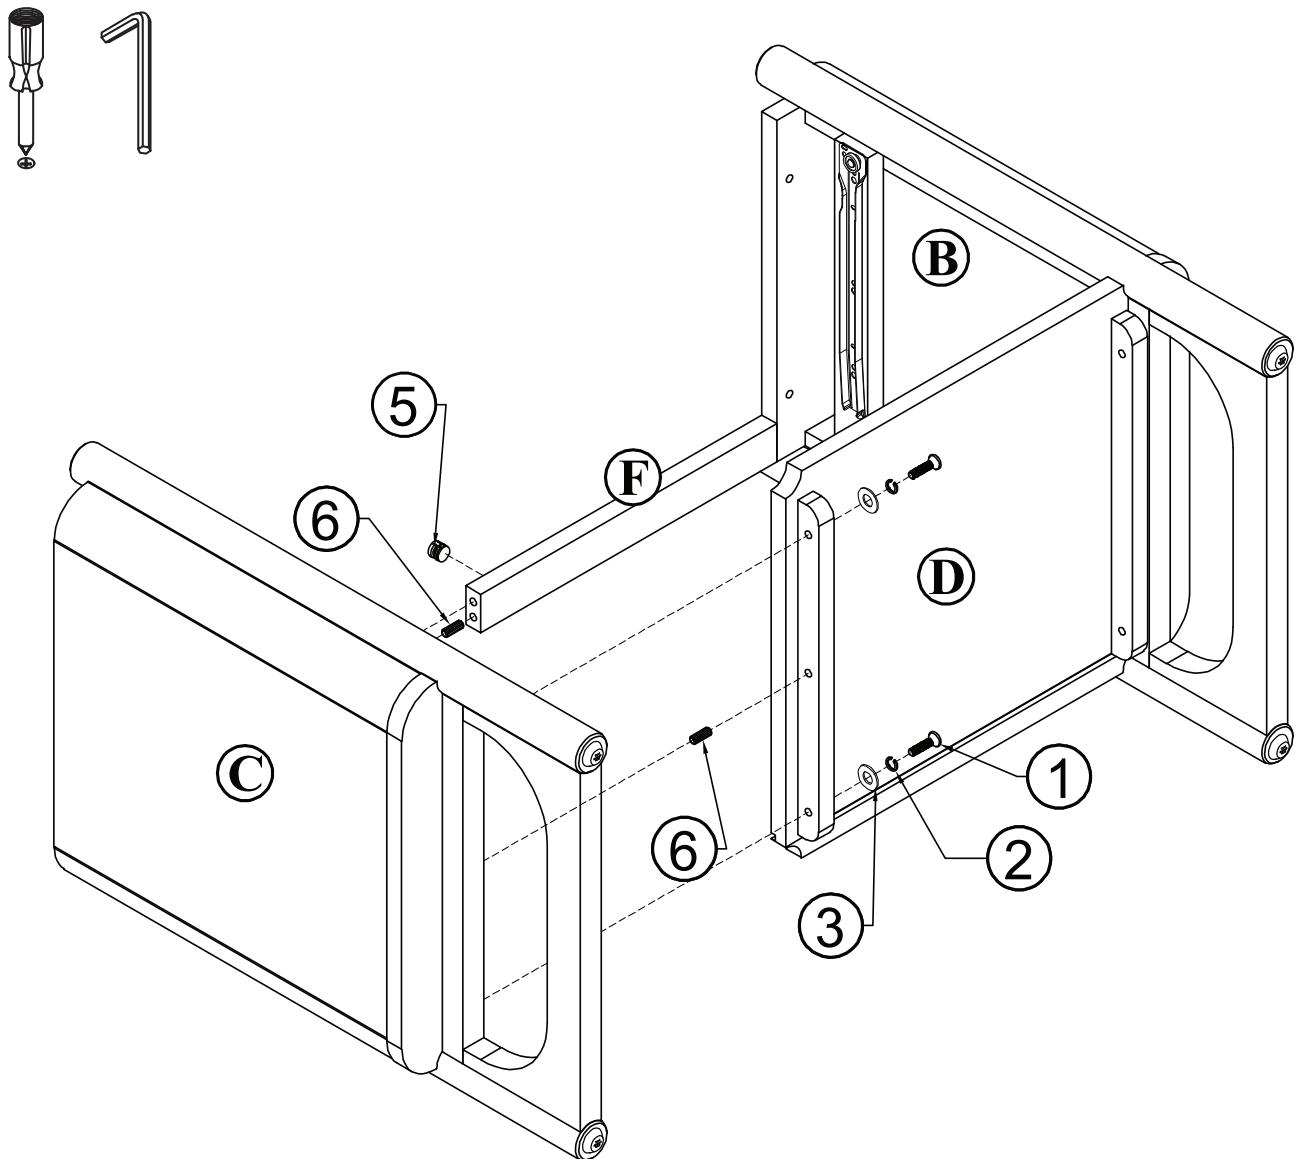

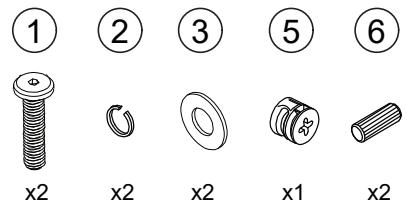

Then attach the Bottom Panel (D) to the Right Side Frame (B) using M6x35 Hex Button Head Bolts (1), M6 Lock Washers (2), and M6 Flat Washers (3). Insert Wooden Dowels (6) to secure the panel firmly in place.

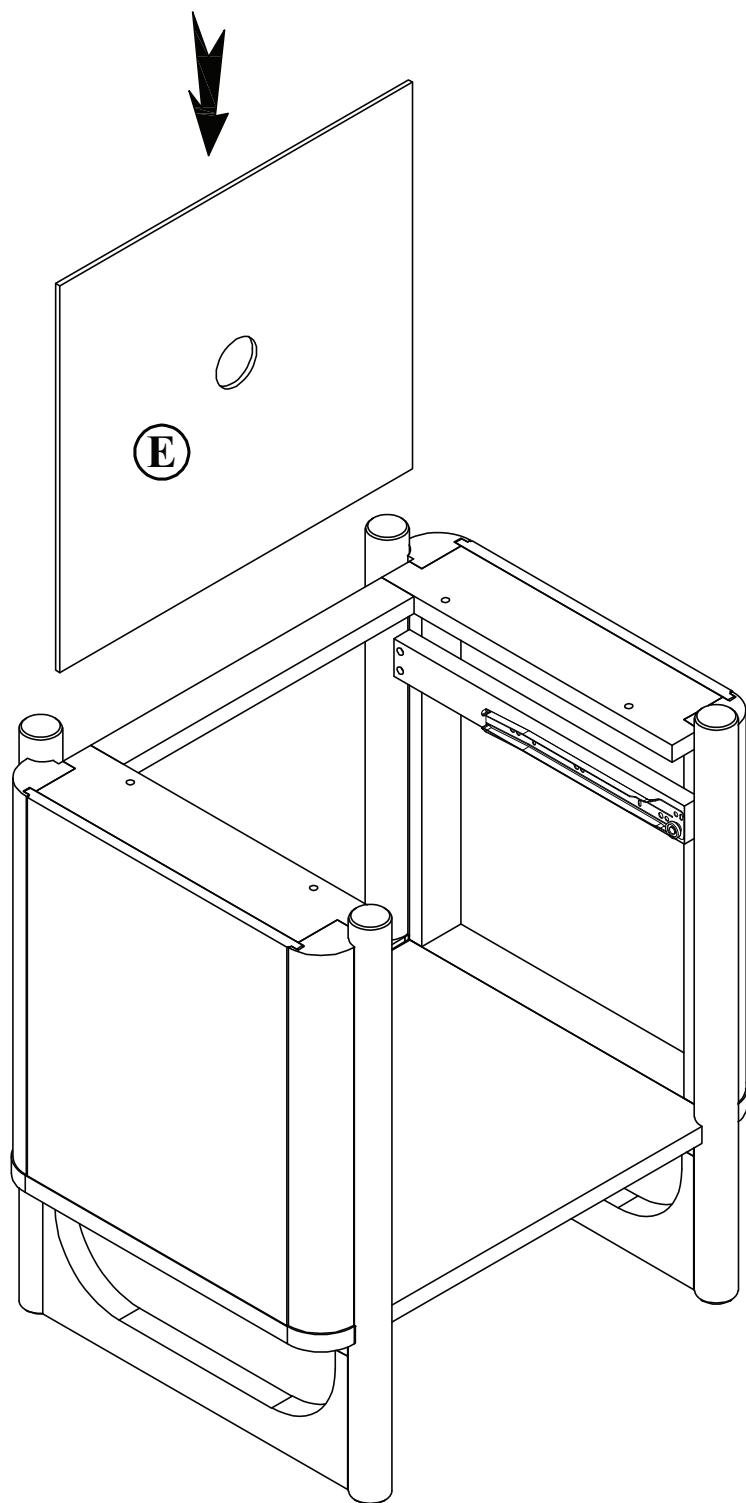

Step 3

Attach the Left Side Frame (C) to the assembly using Cam Locks (5), M6x35 Hex Button Head Bolts (1), M6 Lock Washers (2), and M6 Flat Washers (3). Secure the position with Wooden Dowels (6).

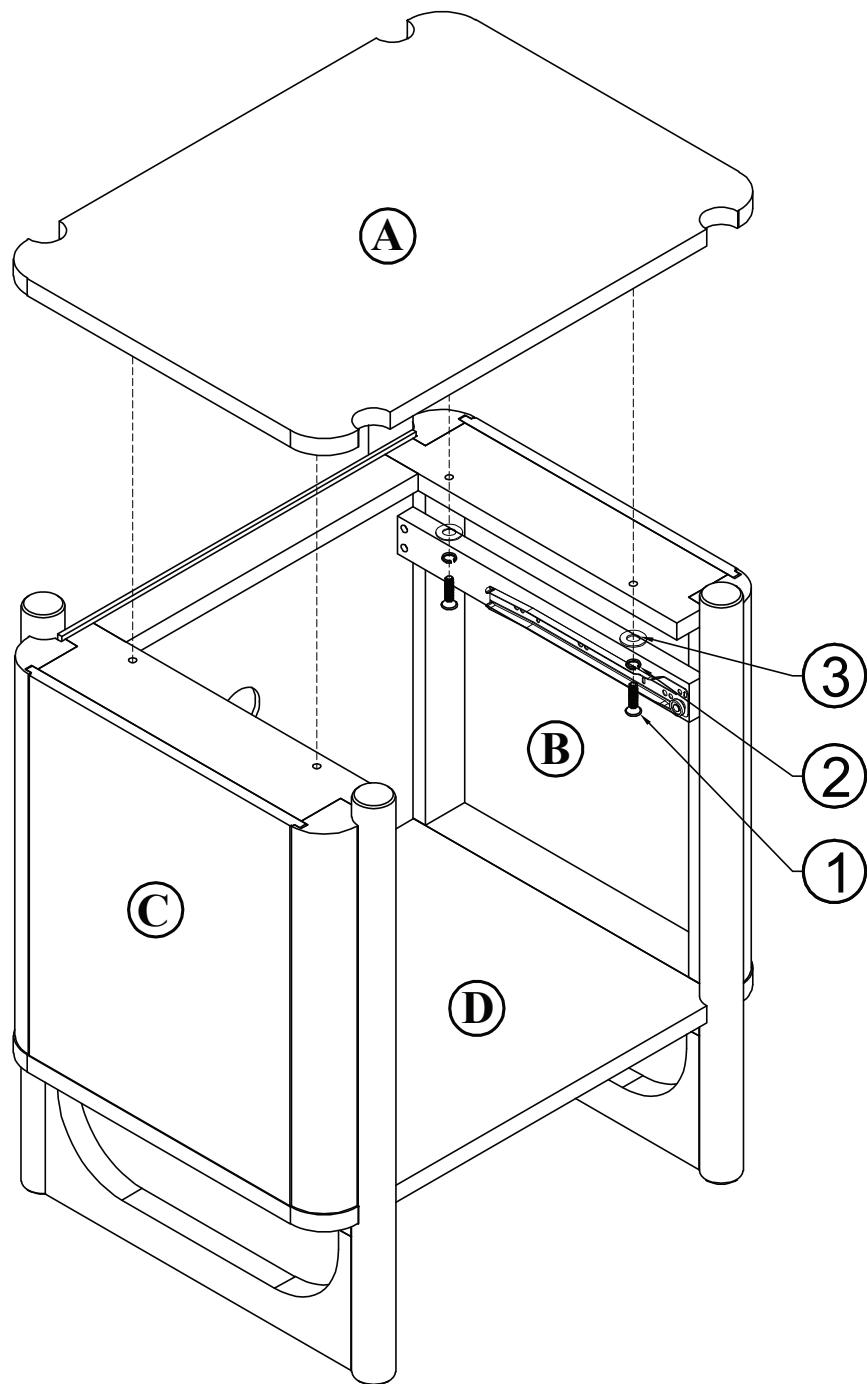

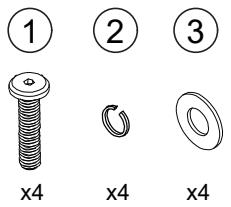

Step 4

Slide the Back Panel (E) down into the grooves of the Left Side Frame (C) and Right Side Frame (B), ensuring it fits securely onto the Bottom Panel (D).

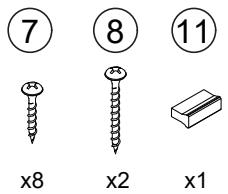

Step 5

Attach the Top Panel (A) to the nightstand assembly using M6x35 Hex Button Head Bolts (1), M6 Lock Washers (2), and M6 Flat Washers (3).

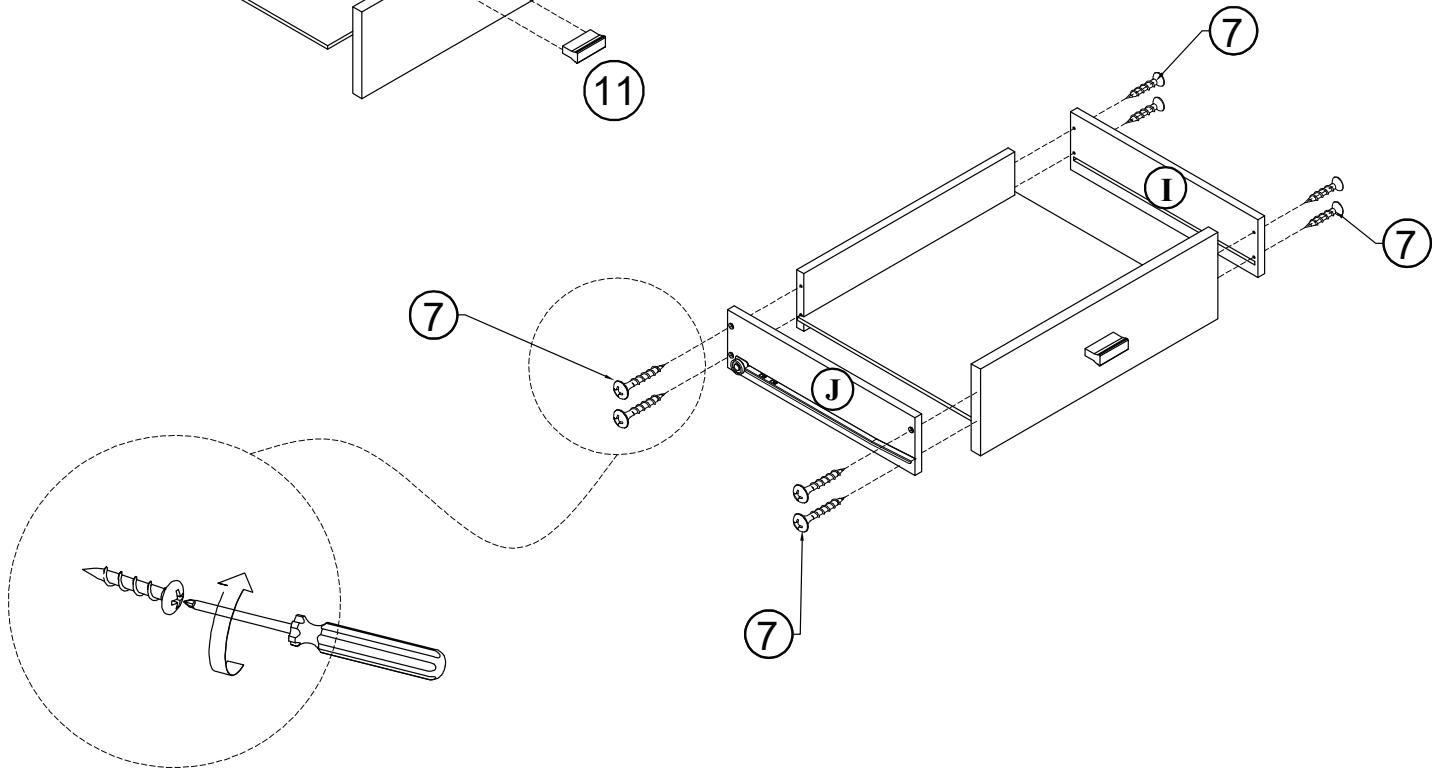

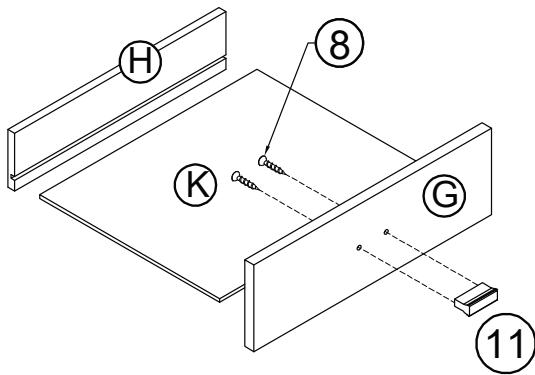

Step 6

Attach the Handle (11) to the Front Drawer Panel (G) using M4x35mm Screws (8).

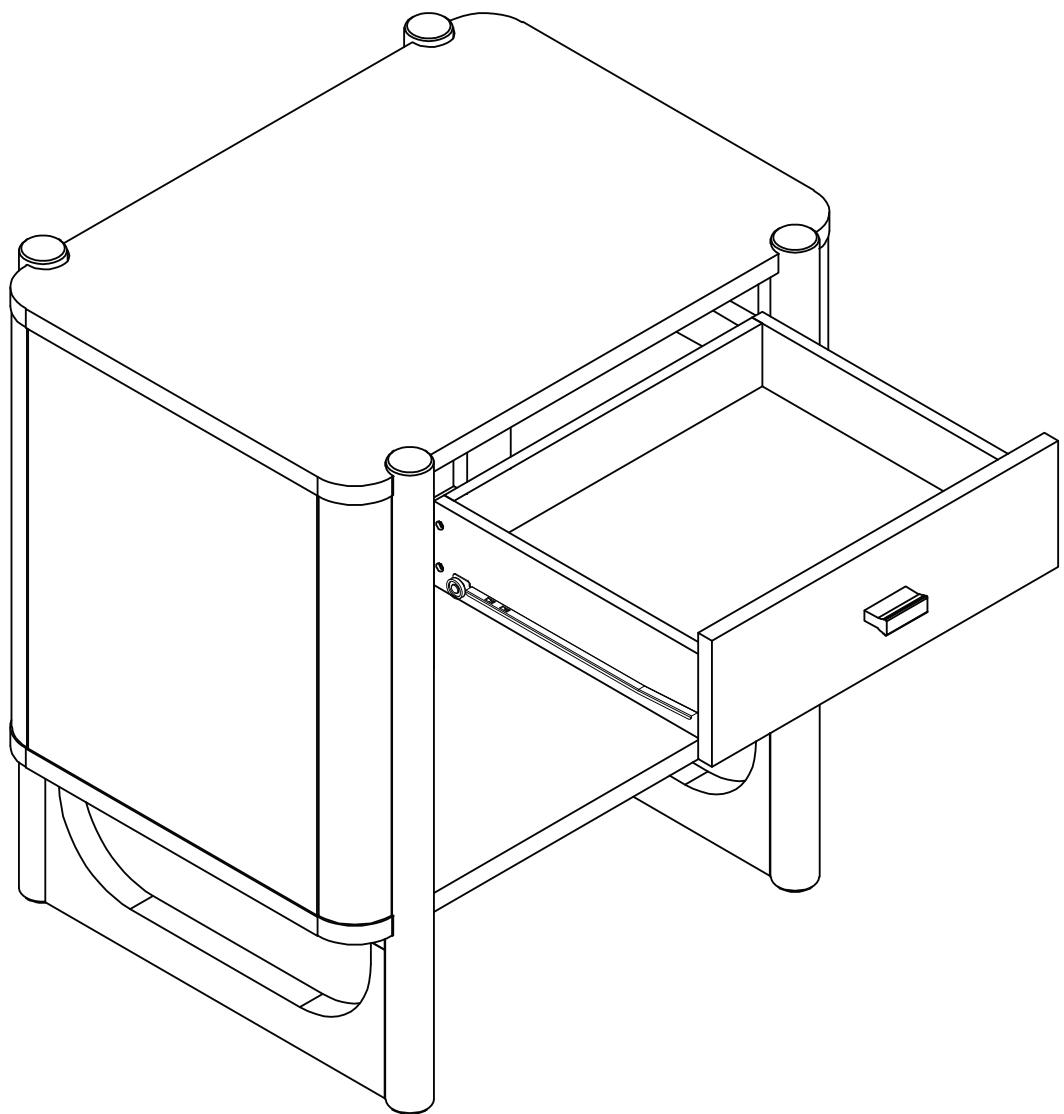

Assemble the drawer by securing the Right Side Drawer Panel (I) and Left Side Drawer Panel (J) using M4x25mm Screws (7).

Step 7

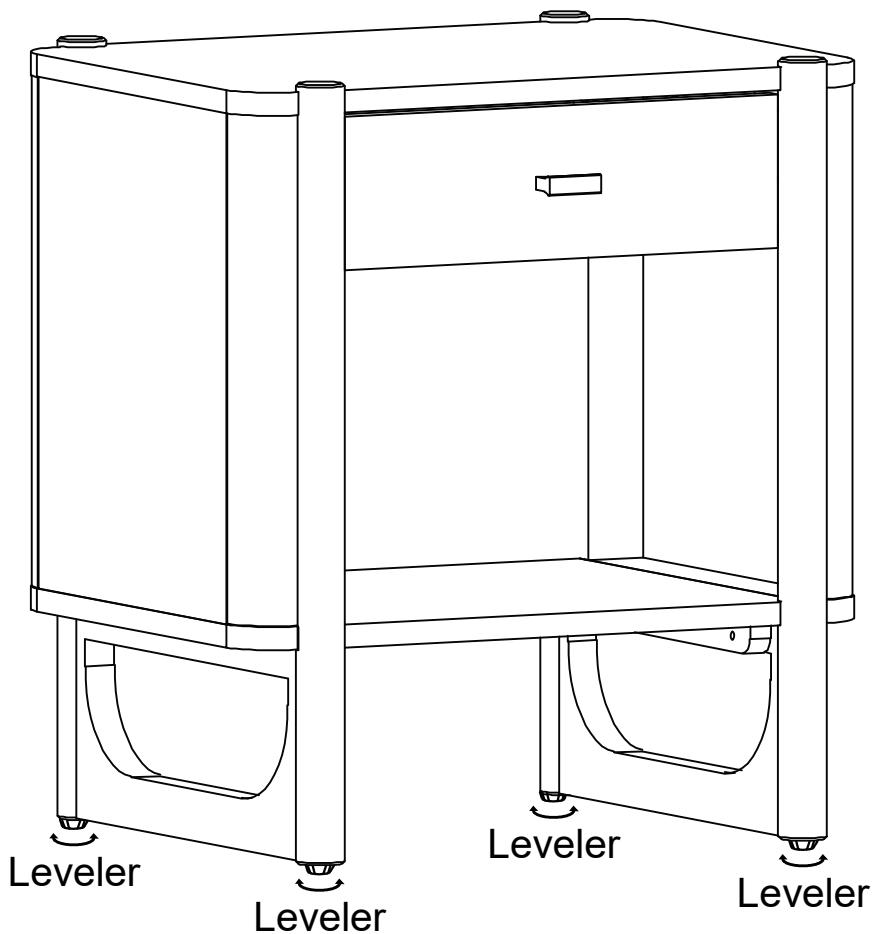

Slide the drawer into the nightstand, making sure the inner drawer slides align with the outer slides attached to the nightstand. Push the drawer fully in until both slides lock smoothly into place

Step 8

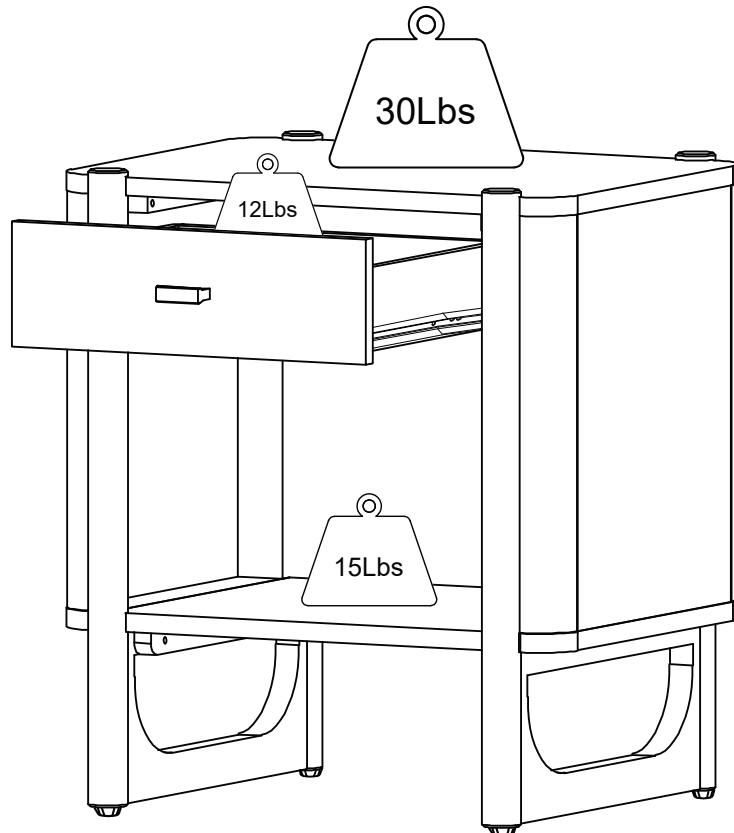

Fully tightening everything to 100%.

Ensure all legs are touching the ground by using Leveler.
